VOLUME XX.

OREGON, MISSOURI, FRIDAY, AUGUST 8, 1884.

NUMBER 11.

KU-KLUX IN THE SOUTH

Prof. J. C. Fremont,

the colored orator of Iowa, until recently a resident of the State of Mississippi, will address the people of Oregon on the above subject at the

COURT HOUSE,

Saturday Evening, August 9th, '84.

On Sunday evening he will deliver a lecture on

Churches and Schools in the South.

There will be no admission fee charged, but a collection will be taken up at the close of his address to defray his traveling expenses, board, etc. Everybody should turn out to these lectures, as they are pronounced by all of our neighboring exchanges to be the finest ever listened to.

—Subscribe for THE SENTINEL.

—Grant Howell Sunday in Oregon.

—County Court proceedings next week.

—Crystal Flake ice cream at E. P. Hostetter's.

—"Bozy" Evans is working on the St. Joseph Herald.

—For good, sweet, wholesome bread, use Zook & Canon's flour.

—Examine the Racine Road Cart. For sale by Anderson & Boyd.

—Go to the lawn festival at Mrs. D. E. Bennett's this Thursday evening.

—Remember the popular "Jennie Holman Combination," August 25th.

—G. W. Bender will leave in a few weeks for a visit with relatives in the east.

—A full set of butchers' tools; also a lot of ice for sale by Schulte & Holtgreffe.

—The appointment of Lincoln Howard at Richville next Sunday is withdrawn.

—Mrs. Melvina Jacobs is now weaving some of the handsomest rug carpeting we have ever seen.

—The peoples' favorite, Jennie Holman, will be here August 25th and play an engagement of one week.

—Thirty head of thriving stock hogs for sale by Daniel Schulte; part spayed sows and barrows and part shoats.

—William Drury, George Meyer, George Luckhardt and D. W. Porter of Mound City spent Sunday in our city.

—We desire to return thanks to Mrs. D. E. Bennett, for a generous supply of the finest chocolate ice cream we ever ate.

—F. L. Brodbeck has seventy thousand and strawberry pants, which he is selling at 85 cts. per hundred; $2.75 per thousand.

—Schult Bros. have been in this section of the county recently, purchasing fat hogs. They have been paying $1.50.

—The Dunkards will hold a meeting at the "hard scramble" school house on Sunday, August 24th. Preaching by the Rev. Koller.

—The colored people are not inclined to believe the statements made by the tutelary genius, Mr. L. C. Irvine on the 4th of August.

—Otta H. Krause, one of the best comedians traveling, will be here with the Jennie Holman Combination, August 25th and stay one week.

—The concert was completely knocked out, and thrashed out of L. C. Irvine's trousers on the 4th by the colored orator Mr. Fremont, of Cherokee.

—The best theatrical troupe traveling is the "Jennie Holman Combination," which commences a week's engagement here in the Opera House, Monday August 26th, 1884.

—Dr. Lukens & Son the popular dentists, will be in Maitland, Wednesday August 13 and in Mound City, on 14th and 15th. Parties needing dental work should not forget these dates.

—Prof. Brill and St. Clair, of Savannah, gave us a pleasant call last Thursday evening. They are traveling in the interest of the Savannah Business College, of which they are the proprietors.

—Under the caption of "Our Colored Folks" in the Press, Louis Irvine is mentioned as one of the colored speakers. The colored people in general are entering their solemn protest against any such classification.

—The Irish World comes to our table this week, bright, sparkling and crisp. Its corps of editors is the ablest on the continent; its political cartoons are lectures indeed. The World is offered during the campaign for only 50 cents, and the people of Holt should subscribe for it at once.

—The off-hand, extemporaneous speech made by L. C. Irvine to the colored people, was pronounced to be an excellent address, but it is creditably and substantially reported that this young genius (?) had been practicing on the speech a week or ten days. Spur-of-the-moment speeches are always good under such circumstances.

—J. H. C., S. O. H. M. A. 25, 1884.

—For good, sweet, wholesome bread, use Zook & Canon's flour.

—Anderson & Cummins are selling fifteen pounds of sugar for one dollar.

—Joseph Graham and Minor Taylor are now engaged in the stock business.

—Mrs. W. A. Lyons returned to her home in Fairbury, Nebraska, last week.

—The best ice cream in the city at Lympus & Bartram's, second door north of bank.

—It will only cost you twenty-five cents to get a summer coat at Anderson & Cummins.

—The best cream you ever ate can be had at Mrs. D. E. Bennett's this Thursday evening.

—Dr. Lukens & son, the dentists will be at Maitland on the 13th and Mound City on 14th and 15th.

—Do not forget that the stand privileges for the Maitland fair will be sold on the grounds on the 23rd inst.

—The popular Jennie Holman Combination will commence a week's engagement here Monday, August 25th.

—County Court is in session and is transacting a large amount of business. We will publish the proceedings next week.

—THE SENTINEL force partook of an elegant dinner through the courtesy of Mrs. Maggie Harris. We all join in saying: thanks.

—The little three year old child of John H. Kunkel, which has been suffering with acute rheumatism for some time, is at the present no better.

—Mrs. M. E. McKnight is the legally authorized agent for the lives and history of Blaine and Logan by the popular authors, H. J. Barnsdale and Ben Perley Poore.

—C. D. Brodbeck, after a pleasant visit of several weeks with his parents in this city, returned to Odell, Nebraska, last Friday, where he is engaged in the drug business.

—Gustave Bockner and family, of Mound City, celebrated Emancipation Day with our people Monday. It was his birthday, and of course he had a delightful time with his numerous friends.

—The self-solicited orator, L. C. Irvine, made the first bid for the Democratic nomination for prosecuting attorney of Holt county, on the 4th of August at the colored citizens celebration.

—Dr. Lukens & Son, the popular dentists, will be in Maitland, on next Wednesday, August 13, and in Mound City, Thursday and Friday, August 14 and 15th. Parties needing dental work should remember these dates.

—The white orator never once—no, not once—referred to Abraham Lincoln as the great leader in the freedom of the slaves, but he did refer to John C. Calhoun, a Democratic "nigger biter" and owner, in his speech on the 4th of August.

—J. C. Fremont, the colored orator from Iowa, will address the Blaine and Logan club of Mound City, this Friday evening. He is worth going a long distance to hear. His illustrations are keen cutters, and the people of that section should fill the opera house to overflowing.

—Mrs. D. E. Bennett will give one of her most popular "Open Air Festivals" on Thursday evening. Ice cream, cake, etc., will be served, and some excellent music will be rendered by the Holt county Cornet Band. This concert and festival will be the best of the season. Everybody should take the opportunity and avail themselves of being present.

—Many of our colored citizens are members of the Blaine and Logan Club already organized, and all others are cordially invited to join it. This will not, however, interfere with their organization of another club, to act in conjunction with this one. The colored people are as enthusiastic as the white of Republicans in this year of enthusiasm, and propose to be thoroughly organized for the campaign.

—John D. Campbell's chances for the nomination for State Senator from this district on the Democratic ticket seem pretty good. It is understood that Atchison county will cast its vote for Moorehouse for Lieutenant-Governor and Nodaway will return the compliment by voting for Campbell. Verily, the ways of the politician are peculiar. The Nodaway delegation is pledged to J. W. Stokes, of Holt county, for State Senator. How's that?

—The Institute for the third week opened up with an attendance of 80, and the funds now on hand are $250. The interest is still manifested with all the vim and energy which characterizes the Holt county teacher. A test examination on the two week's work was had on last Saturday, a large number pulling through satisfactory to both professors and themselves. The Institute during the past week was visited by State Superintendent Coleman, and Prof. Page, of Lincoln Institute, each of whom made advantageous remarks to the teachers. A reunion of the teachers will be held some evening next week.

—Anderson & Boyd sell the Mitchell, Lewis & Co's. Spring Wagon and Road Cart.

—"Jennie Holman Combination," Sterrett's Opera House, August 25, 1884.

—Miss Nellie Offutt, of Kansas City, is visiting her friend, Miss Minnie Mobitzell, this week.

—We hope our young ladies will organize a "Mother Hubbard" band. They are all the rage now.

—Rev. Christy will preach at Forbes, next Sunday morning at the usual hour, and at Oregon at night.

—We wonder why two of our society young men were carrying lanterns around one evening last week.

—Lemon, chocolate and vanilla cream, chocolate and coconut cake at Mrs. Bennett's this Thursday evening.

—Big cribs of corn, fat hogs and fat steers will be very common in this part of the glorious climate of Missouri next fall.

—O. M. Groves, of Savannah, Mo., has been spending a few days in this vicinity, in the interest of the Savannah marble works.

—Henry Nies received a fine lot of fruit last week, from his brother George who is now residing at Dallas, Oregon. The fruit was sent by mail and came in excellent condition.

—The Press accuses the SENTINEL of publishing things a little bit "smutty." How is this? "Diarrhoea of words." In the Press of the 7th. If there is anything that will give a Democrat such a thing, it is a Blaine and Logan meeting.

—Sol. Loffer brought in the first load of new wheat last Thursday, that we have seen this year. It was spring wheat and of the Italian variety. Joe Long was the purchaser, paying sixty-five cents per bushel.—Maitland Independent.

—The following letters remain uncalled for at the Oregon postoffice: Mrs. Dicy Golliday, H. S. Hewitt, Wm Link, John Henry Meyer, J. R. Norvell, Miss M. Smith, George Thatrop. Cards: T. C. Lamborn, P. M. M. Mailor, Mrs. C. A. Thorn.

—At the celebration of the "cooper stone" and dedication of the eventful "Emancipation Proclamation" on the 4th by the colored people here, L. C. Irvine was completely heckled and shamed up by the young colored orator Mr. Fremont, of Iowa.

—The following letters remain uncalled for at the Forest City postoffice: Marion Babcock 2, Henry A. Bowles 2, Mary O. Dugger, Dell Dickson, Thos. Kedian, John Mouser, Mr. McGoan, C. F. Morris 2, George W. Pennington, Ella Sipes, Elijah Tilton, Wm Willson.

—At the open air concert at Mrs. D. E. Bennett's this Thursday evening, the choicest chocolate, vanilla and lemon ice cream will be served; also chocolate and coconut cake Turn out everybody. The Holt county cornet band will be in attendance and discourse sweet music.

—Mr. Fremont, the colored orator from Iowa, will lecture in this city on Saturday evening, August 8th. Subject: "The Ku-Klux in the South." On Sunday evening he will lecture on: "Schools and churches." He is an interesting speaker and he should have a large audience.

—Mrs. Fannie Frame has just received a large invoice of ladies' fancy goods consisting of ties and fichus, bed-sheets, tidies, shams, toilet sets, etc. These goods are superior in quality and are sold at Chicago prices. Ladies desiring anything in this line, will save money by giving Mrs. Frame a call.

—He that exalts himself shall be abased." Mr. L. C. Irvine the self-constituted representative of the white race, at Oregon, on the 4th of August, is studying the meaning of this scripture since receiving the timely and well-deserved rebuke at the hands of the colored orator from Cherokee, Iowa.

—At the test trial of teachers held in our city on Saturday last many of the teachers, in attendance at the institute were unable to give satisfactory answers to the following questions: two-thirds of the cube of a number is ten more than the cube of two-thirds of the number; what is the number? What county's border Holt? What is standard time? Name and locate five principal railroads in Missouri? Name our state officers? Who was Thomas H. Benton?

—We are informed by Judge McIntyre who is thoroughly posted upon all matters relating to grain, that the wheat crop of Holt county is proving to be even better than was anticipated before threshing began. He is of the opinion that this year's crop is fully as large as any before grown in this county, and it may prove to be the largest yield ever known. The quality is equal to the quantity, the grain now being received, when properly garnered, proving to be the very choicest. Some farmers very unwisely threshed their wheat while damp, and this has injured it very greatly. Very few farmers were so indiscreet, and the grain thus damaged, will not effect the local market, the quantity damaged being insignificant.

—For one dollar you can buy a first-class woman's shoe at Anderson & Cummins.

—The Kyger Brothers are giving excellent satisfaction with their new steam threshing machine.

—Married, on the 6th inst., by Eq. Hoffmann, Mr. J. W. Bailey and Miss Allie Wilson, both of Amazons.

—Corrant & Meyers, of Mound City, will, we understand, open a mammoth clothing house at Skidmore this week.

—Bob. Fredericks gladdened our hearts on last Sunday, by placing on our table a liberal supply of tomatoes.

—The organization of the Blaine and Logan club at Mound City, will occur this Friday. Prominent speakers from abroad will be in attendance.

—J. C. Fremont, the eloquent colored orator from Mississippi, will deliver a fine lecture on "churches and schools in the South," next Sunday evening.

—We understand that considerable wheat remains in the field in shock throughout this portion of the country. It seems to us that this is very risky business.

—Miss Maggie Frank and Miss Anna Eigenbaum, of St. Joseph, came up to Holt county last Wednesday to pick blackberries and gather May apples. They will ship their fruit to St. Joseph and Omaha.

—Prof. Hollway, instructor in the Institute, will deliver a lecture to teachers and all persons interested in education at M. E. church on next Tuesday evening. Let all interested turn out and hear him.

—Better to court a girl for her money than to marry a scolding wife. Better to eat your bread without honey than to have dyspepsia through life. Better to lead a life of sobriety than to be carried round in a hack. Better to keep your wife out of society than to owe her a salakin sack.

—At the time Mr. Fremont was making his speech, and putting in the keenest rebukes to the speaker that preceded him, that gentleman was standing in the audience, making injudicious comparisons of what Mr. Fremont said.

—In consequence of the wide prevalence of flux in Savannah, the circuit court which convened on Monday last was adjourned on Tuesday. Hence, the case of M. M. Smith vs. Mound City will not be heard until the next term of that court, in December.

—A re-union of the teachers will be held at the court house on next Thursday evening, the 14th inst. The entertainment will be of a social and literary nature. All are invited to attend and become acquainted with the school mares and school masters of our county.

—Messrs. W. S. and G. W. Hama ker, of Springfield, Ohio, are visiting at the residence of Messrs J. W. and W. W. Maple. Those gentlemen were formerly neighbors of the Maple family before they emigrated to this State, and they come to this county with the view of locating.

—A young man whose maiden name is L. C. Irvine, said in his speech to the colored people "that he came as a representative of the white citizens of Oregon to encourage them." Mr. Fremont did not think much encouragement came from the white people of the South to make them freemen.

—The teachers who have enrolled in the Institute since the last publication are the following: Mary Wade and Mary Twyman, of Bigelow, Maud McKnight and Mrs. S. T. McKinney, of Oregon. Will Schatz and J. E. Johnston of Maitland, J. W. Blevins, Atchison county, W. O. Crono, of Ohio. The total enrollment is now 80.

—Will Hiley, Omaha, Jake Washington, Council Bluffs, Lincoln Payne, Rock Port, Bart Enoch, St. Joseph, Rich. Gillett, Corning, Miss Ella Chesney, Mrs. Harriet Graves, Maryville, Mrs. Lewis Bowman, Atchison, Kansas, and Mrs. Anna Mason and daughter of St. Joseph were in our city Monday at the colored people's celebration.

—Those who failed to attend the lecture of Mr. J. C. Fremont on Thursday evening last, missed a rare treat. We are informed that his lecture was rich, rare and racy, abounding in pith and point, and was well worth hearing. We regret that we could not be present. Several "Smart Alecs" got elegantly and beautifully taken in by the colored orator, who demonstrated to them that though his skin was dark, his brain was sufficiently active to take the would-be "smarties" down several pegs.—Hannibal (Mo.) Press.

—It is important that the Republicans of this county should effect a thorough organization for the pending campaign. Receptions, meetings, and all that sort of thing are very good in their way, but they cannot take the place of an organization which shall make provision for the details of campaign work. Political victories are not won by bonfires or any other expressions of enthusiasm, however useful they may be in their way. The labor before us is one of very great specific weight, and must be begun early and kept up to the very last.

—Benjamin Vining, of Ohio, is visiting his brother, W. R. near this city.

—Fred Markland, of White Cloud, Kansas, is taking a "lay off," and will spend several days in our village.

—E. C. Rhodes returned from Hobron, Nebraska, last Wednesday, where he has been engaged for several months in the plastering business.

—"Woe is me, woe is me." Oh that I had never made my speech on the 4th of August to the colored celebration. "Woe is me, woe is me."

—The people of Hiawatha, Kansas, say: "Hon. J. C. Fremont made one of the best speeches here last week, we ever heard." He will lecture here next Saturday evening on the History of the "Ku-Klux in the South."

—IN SPITE OF THE OLD FOLKS.

Married—Friday night, August 1, 1884, at Oregon, Holt county, Mr. Lee A. Penny and Miss Allie, adopted daughter of M. L. Collins, both of Forest City, Justice Hoffman officiating.

A casual observer will notice nothing strange in the above announcement, it being simply the chronicling of that very common occurrence, a wedding; but a few minutes behind the scenes, as it were, brings to light a pretty little romance, in which two young people play the leading parts in a most successful manner.

Living near neighbors at Forest City are the families of Mr. Collins and Mr. Penny, the leading members of which were in speaking in the past tense we speak advisedly—two bright young people. The pride of Mr. Collins' home was his charming adopted daughter, Miss Allie, and she was petted and humored in all things but one. A law was framed by her father, a law as inexorable as that of the Medes and Persians, forbidding her having anything to do with the young man across the way. Seemingly the daughter acquiesced in the will of the lord of the house, but in spirit she did not. Occasionally she met young Penny, and they became attached to each other and were finally engaged. So far all was favoring the love-smitten couple, but how to bring about a successful finale, a grand coup d'etat, occasioned great mental anxiety. After much thought a plan was hit upon which it was thought would work like a charm, and subsequent events prove that this surmise was correct to a high degree.

Friday evening, Miss Collins had a young lady friend, who was in the secret, come to her house, telling the old folks she was a going to remain all night with her friend. Instead however, of sleeping, at about 11 o'clock the maidens silently stole out of the house and were met at the gate by Mr. Lee and a friend with a carriage. It was the work of but a moment to assist the ladies to a carriage and hurriedly drive off. Over the hills the horses were urged at a rapid gait, until the residence of Justice Hoffman was reached shortly before midnight. Arousing that worthy gentleman, the cave was stated to him, and he promptly said the words which made Lee A. Penny and Allie Collins one.

The newly-married couple then leisurely drove to the groom's home, where they have since remained. To-day they leave for Kansas to grow up with the country.

The mother is an invalid, and has been prostrated at the action of her daughter.—St. Joseph Herald.

UNION SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.

According to appointment delegates met at M. E. church on Thursday last week. It was decided to have a union Sunday School picnic on Friday, Aug. 22, and to make all further necessary arrangements, such as selecting and preparing grounds, music, etc., the following committee was appointed:

B. O. Cowan, V. L. Graham, J. A. Goodheart, Jas. Deboit, Jasper Nowland, J. M. Meufice, Fred Drehr, Henry Zachman, Hugh Pennel, Robt. Montgomery, John Beck, Jas. Scott, C. Hobbittell, Dan Schulte. And any other schools not represented on this committee, are invited to send delegates. The committee will meet at the Presbyterian church in Oregon on Saturday, Aug. 9th at 1 P. M.

A SONG

THAT NEVER GROWS OLD.

We read of a French Emperor who kept a book to record the noble deeds and heroic actions of his subjects, but alas, he found it too small to contain all the noble sacrifices and chivalric deeds worthy of record. So we find this space inadequate to refer to the smallest fraction of the marvelous and really astounding bargains we have for an appreciative public—bargains only to be seen to strike the masses at once like a regular whirlwind of popular favor.

WE NEVER TIRE

of selling goods cheap, because we inspire the masses; we benefit them; we encourage hope for their betterment; we build up a lofty enthusiasm by pointing the way from the low grounds of adversity to the strong heights of prosperity. All along are strewn the wrecks of once bright promises. It is paved with the bones of illustrious victims. You ask us what has done all this? How can you sell cheaper than your neighbors? How has your drawer been filled with the potent metal that will buy the world, when so many start with such lofty pretenses and are soon not even a memory. We answer: by buying at the Fountain Head—with the Dollar of our Daddies, when, like the present demoralization, over production is bearing its fruits. Years of sleepless energy, heroic work, and triumphant victories have left no impress that can be tortured into a dampened enthusiasm or broken resolution. Never has our stock of farming implements been so ruinously low. Our prices are low and we are glad to sell at, and consider it a favor for you to call for them. It becomes the duty of every farmer to stop and inquire if there be not some easier, quicker road to success in life than the one over which they are not tramping—whether there is not a way to buy lower and save the surplus, and at the same time supply the wants of the farmer. There are no persons so well posted and discreet in purchasing who cannot learn something, and to such, as well as others, we submit this address. We handle a full line of the latest improved Agricultural Implements, Cultivators, Sulky Plows, Corn Drills, Reapers, Mowers, Stoves, Tinware, Hardware, Spouting and everything to be found in a first-class hardware, and implement house. Give us a call and be convinced that we will sell as cheap as any house in Northwest Mo.

LIFE'S PATHWAY
